YOU WANT TO IMPROVE YOUR GENDER PERFORMANCE?

This training is the best starting point

Gender mainstreaming in policy, programmes and projects

Great opportunity to update your knowledge and improve your skills for gender mainstreaming. The training shows how to increase the relevance and quality of policies, programmes, and projects.

FOR WHOM?

This training is particularly interesting for persons involved in designing, implementing and evaluating policies, programmes and projects at local, national and international level. This includes civil servants and staff of governmental institutions, non-profit organizations, consultants and companies.

WHEN?

7-8-9 September 2016

WHERE?

At conference hotel World House Wetten, Germany, close to Airport Weeze (Düsseldorf)

Venue: World House Wetten

Address: Vellarsweg 2, 47625 Kevelaer-Wetten, Germany

Website: www.world-house.eu

THE TRAINING PROGRAMME

The training programme covers a wide range of topics, including basic gender concepts and understanding the deeper significance of a gender-sensitive approach; the legal and policy frameworks; gender analysis of sectors and countries; and tools and strategies to apply gender in projects and programmes. A specific component will be dedicated to new economic approaches, particularly "Caring Economics". Each thematic area of the training will have a theoretical and a practical part. Discussions, exchange of experiences and exercises will make the training dynamic and highly participative. Participants can make exercises with their own projects, or with the case studies provided by the trainers.
